

THE COLUMBUS TACO FEST RETURNS TO DOWNTOWN COLUMBUS FOR TWO DAYS OF TACOS, TWO DAYS OF FUN IN 2020

COLUMBUS, OH - The Columbus Taco Fest is back for its third year, and they are promising two days of tacos, two days of fun. On May 16th and 17th 2020 they will hold a weekend long event filled with unique local taco trucks, tequila based drinks, Mexican beer, DJs and live music, all while enjoying the view of Columbus at Genoa Park.

After having two successful years, the Columbus Taco Fest knew that it was time to keep expanding and bringing excitement to our city's taco lovers. This year is said to have double the fun, with even more taco trucks, as well as two days of live music and entertainment.

For the previous two years, the taco fest team has given proceeds to local non-profit organizations and this year will be no different. In 2020, Columbus Taco Fest will benefit WAV (We Amplify Voices), which partners middle school students with professional music producers to create radio-ready songs in underserved communities and special needs classrooms. Students write the lyrics for the song and guide its artistic direction, which eventually will become a professionally produced song that is broadcasted on local radio and online.

"From the very beginning our goal as a team was to host a new and exciting festival that the people in our home city would love, and we feel like we have achieved that. The goal now is to continue to come back, year after year, and improve more than the last, which is why we are so thrilled to have two days to enjoy tacos, tequila and music with our favorite community" – Hugo Albornoz and Sydney Kondas, event organizers.

The Columbus Taco Fest 2020, two days of tacos, two days of fun, will continue to release updates on vendors, music line-up and activities.
