Tacos, Tequila, and Music: A Fall Festival at Goodale Park

Columbus, OH - August 14, 2024 – Mark your calendars for a weekend filled with Tacos, Tequila, and Music at the Park as a vibrant fall festival takes over Goodale Park on October 5-6, 2024. This event, brought to you by Friends of Goodale Park and the team behind Columbus Taco Fest, promises a lively atmosphere, delicious food, and plenty of entertainment.

Taking place in the heart of Columbus, Goodale Park is a beloved, symbolic location known for its beautiful setting and community-focused events. “We love this park and the special connection it has with our city,” said Hugo Albornoz, the festival organizer. “It’s the perfect place to bring everyone together for a weekend of tacos, tequila, and music.”

The event will feature a diverse lineup of taco vendors, offering a variety of delicious taco options to satisfy every palate. From classic favorites to inventive new dishes, there will be something for everyone to enjoy.

In addition to the food, attendees can look forward to tequila bars and beer stations serving up refreshing cocktails and brews, perfect for pairing with the wide array of tacos. Live music from local bands and performers will keep the energy high throughout the weekend, making it a must-visit event for foodies, beer or tequila enthusiasts, and music lovers alike.

To maintain a family-friendly environment, all minors under 18 must be accompanied by an adult aged 21 or older. IDs will be checked at the gates to enforce this policy, ensuring that everyone can enjoy the event safely and responsibly.

The event will support Friends of Goodale Park in its mission to preserve and enhance this cherished urban space for the entire community.
