

Puppy Dress-Up Contest Returns to Columbus Taco Fest: A Fun-filled Day for Furry Friends and Their Owners.

COLUMBUS, Ohio - April 3, 2024 - Columbus Taco Fest is excited to announce the return of the highly anticipated Puppy Dress-Up Contest! On Sunday, May 19 from 2pm to 4pm, pet owners and their furry companions will gather at Genoa Park for a day of adorable costumes, friendly competition, and family fun.

The Puppy Dress-Up Contest, a beloved tradition at Columbus Taco Fest, invites pet owners to showcase their creativity by dressing up their canine companions in imaginative costumes. With three categories tailored to accommodate pets of all sizes and breeds - Chihuahuas, Small Dogs, and Big Dogs - there's something for every furry friend to enjoy.

"We're delighted to bring back the Puppy Dress-Up Contest for another year," says Hugo Alborno, Event Organizer of Columbus Taco Fest. "It's a fantastic opportunity for pet owners to bond with their dogs, show off their unique personalities, and connect with other members of the community who share their love of animals."

In addition to the contest, attendees can look forward to a variety of activities and attractions, including food vendors, live music, and family-friendly entertainment. The event promises a day of laughter, camaraderie, and plenty of adorable moments for everyone to enjoy.

The proceeds from the contest will benefit CHA Animal Shelter, a local nonprofit organization dedicated to providing shelter, care, and adoption services for homeless pets in the community. By participating in the contest, pet owners will not only have fun with their furry friends but also support a worthy cause that helps animals in need.
