COLUMBUS TACO FEST® TO BRING BACK CARRYOUT STYLE EVENT THIS SPRING

COLUMBUS, OH – March 31, 2021 - After a successful event this past fall, the Columbus Taco Fest® is bringing its Grab-N-Go carryout style event back this spring. The event will be held May 15-16 at the Ohio History Connection and will feature the best taco trucks the city has to offer.

Attendees will be able to pre-order through the Streetfoodfinder app (www.streetfoodfinder.com), drive to the event, and pick-up their order at the corresponding taco truck at a preset time. Although the focus will be on pre-ordering through the app, attendees will also be permitted to order at the truck as long as COVID-19 safety guidelines, such as wearing a facial covering and social distancing, are followed.

"As a local event that works closely with the community, we have a responsibility to keep our friends and neighbors safe," said event organizers Hugo Albornoz and Sydney Kondas. "Keeping this in mind, we found a way to still enjoy some of Columbus' best taco trucks and support local vendors during these difficult times"

Taco lovers can follow @columbustacofest on Instagram and Facebook for all the latest Columbus Taco Fest® updates. An Instagram photo contest will be taking place during the event that will award daily winners with prizes and giveaways. Followers can enter their Taco Week photos for a chance to win by using the event hashtag #ColumbusTacoFest.

More information, including a list of participating taco trucks and their menus, will be available at www.columbustacofest.com
